The youth, son of a prominent Elgin resident, is in a hospital here. His right leg was so badly crushed that its amputation was necessary.

CONVENTION OF ARIZONA 'CASEYS' NOGALES, MAY 14

NOGALES, Ariz., April 19.—Local members of the Knights of Columbus are preparing to entertain their visiting brethren at the state convention of the order to be held in Nogales, May 14, 15 and 16.

LOCAL MEXICAN YOUTH BURIED YESTERDAY.

The funeral of Pedro Moreno, who passed away Monday following an attack of pneumonia, was held yesterday afternoon, interment being made in the City cemetery.

The deceased spent practically the whole of his life in Tombstone, and was well and favorably known.

Being a member of the local Mexican orchestra, his request made before death that the orchestra play at his burial was carried out. The procession was an impressive one, as the young man had many friends in the city.

FOURTH EMPLOYEE OF ARIZONA MINE DIES

PHOENIX, April 18.—Four fatal accidents have occurred on Arizona mining property so far this year, according to State Mine Inspector J. F. White, who today made public details of the last fatality. Mr. White reported that Diego M. Martinez, a motorman employed at the Ray Consolidated Mining company's plant near Hayden, died April 15 of injuries sustained two days earlier when a car he was driving along a track crashed into a derailed timber truck.

SANTA FE PREPARES FOR COLORADO BASIN COMMISSION MEETING

SANTA FE, N. M., April 17.—C. C. Stetson, secretary to Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce, is here to arrange for the final meeting of the Colorado river basin commission, which he said, will be held here in July or August.

MAY NURSE ADMINISTER ANAESTHETIC IS QUESTION

PHOENIX, April 17.—Custom and not law should determine the question of whether a registered nurse is entitled to administer a general anaesthetic, according to an opinion which has just been issued by Attorney General W. J. Galbraith.

Many strange and awesome questions are put up to Galbraith during the course of a month, but his is the first time he has ever been called in to referee a controversy between nurse and doctor as to who should administer the anaesthetic.

The inquiry submitted was: "May a registered nurse administer a general anaesthetic?" To which the attorney general replied:

"There is nothing contained within the law requiring professional nurses to be registered which authorizes them to administer drugs. If before the passage of that law nurses were not allowed to administer drugs, that law does not give them the right to now but if heretofore it has been the custom for professional nurses to administer anaesthetics under the immediate supervision of a physician, we know of no reason why the customary practice should not be continued."

TWO STRAIGHT PARTY TICKETS NOMINATED

BISBEE, April 19.—With only 185 votes polled in all three city wards, both Democratic and Republican tickets were approved in the city primary without change yesterday.

James M. Ball, heading the Democratic ticket, polled 132 votes, while E. C. Hicks, Republican candidate for mayor, polled 49.

Interest lagged throughout the day in the election mainly because no candidates' names, other than those approved by both parties before the election, were on the ballots. The names of two or three for precinct committeemen were written in on the ballots.

LADY DUVEEN, WHO EMERALDS WERE LOST.

Posted for transmission from London to New York, a packet of pear shaped emeralds, valued at $25,000, was lost or abstracted by thieves from the mail bags. The emeralds were intended by Sir Joseph Duveen, art dealer of London, as a present for his wife.

CHARLES FELDMAN, CONTRACTOR HERE, DIES SUDDENLY

TUCSON, April 17.—Failure of the heart to function snuffed out the life of Charles J. Feldman, one of the best known contractors in the state, as he lay asleep yesterday morning in his bedroom at the family home at 906 North First avenue. His death was discovered by his wife. He was born in San Francisco 52 years ago.

News of the death of Mr. Feldman comes as a distinct shock to his many friends in Tucson and all over the state, as he had apparently been in good health.

Mr. Feldman has been one of the most active contractors in the state up to the time he sustained a fall during the construction of the Santa Rita hotel.

INDIANA GIRL KILLS BIG MOUNTAIN LION

TUCSON, April 17.—Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Pogue at a fox hunt at Jack Durham's ranch in the Tortillitas succeeded in dispatching one 200-pound mountain lion, two red foxes and six bobcats.

Leaving Tucson early Sunday morning of last week, the party drove in machines to the Durham ranch, forty miles northward from this city, where the hunt commenced. Eight fox hounds and four blood hounds were employed, these being furnished the party by Jack Durham.

Riding through the mountainous section throughout the day, the party was close on the trail of large game many times and a mountain lion of unusual size was cornered by the hounds and the hunters, the fatal shot being fired by Miss Doreen Burquison, of Winchester, Indiana, a member of the party.

Two red foxes were killed by the party with the aid of the fox hounds, and in addition six ferocious bobcats, who put up a strong battle against the dogs, were dispatched.

HAS BEENS WIN GAME BY NARROW MARGIN.

Wagonbough Wales is the happiest man in Cochise county today.

In spite of the fact that the Has Beens won over the Hi team yesterday afternoon by the skin of their teeth, the victory, in the estimation of Wales and his men, looms up with no less importance than the Declaration of Independence to the 100 per cent American, or the adjournment of the Arizona legislature.

In the first half of the ninth inning the score stood 10 to 11 in favor of the Hi team, with Professor C. E. Tifford and Coach C. J. Wynn, who occupied prominent positions on the Hi bench, grooming themselves and fixing their mouths for the sweet portion. And for a while it looked as though Wales would be squelched forever.

With the Has Beens at bat in the first half of the ninth, Wales engaged his men in a heart-to-heart conference, which Wynn tried to have. ump Joe Hood declare a violation of the rules of the game, but Hood could see no reason why Wales could not weep among his own brood, and the 99th objection entered by Wynn was overruled.

What Wales imparted during this brief confab will never be known to any soul outside the realm of the Has Beens.

But to Wynn's muffled opinion of the decision of "His Umps."

While wrangling over the matter was in progress Base ump Harry E. Scott sauntered into the circle and declared a foul ball.

Anyway, it happened, and before Wynn loudly proclaimed that the side was out, three scores were tallied, and the Hi boys came up for their last effort, which netted but one run and a heavy heart for both the Prof. and Wynn.

The game was won by a score of 14 to 12.

The Has Beens won a victory under a great handicap, for Handsome Harry Rafferty was not at his post at second, leaving a very weak spot in the lineup of the team. It did worse than that, for many ladies went home in a huff when they found out that Harry was not to play. It was a terrible disappointment, but Wales was saving him for the next game, when the ladies are assured that their hero will be in action.

Hill pitched a wonderful game for the Has Beens, and like moonshine, he seems to get better with age.

But—Yesterday's game evidenced a situation that is none too rosy for the Has Beens. The Hi team is whipping into form, and in the next game—but why rob Wales of his sweet nectar that is rightfully his to enjoy?

The redeeming feature of the Hi squad is their sportsmanlike attitude in the face of defeat. They are coming, and coming fast, and while, for Wales' sake, we will venture no predictions on the next game, we are offering no bets.

CAPITOL RESUMES ITS FORMER ASPECT WITH SESSION OVER

PHOENIX, April 19.—For the first time in nearly two months holidays and Sundays excepted, the halls of the state capitol present a deserted and desolate aspect to the visitor. No groups of serious faced men or groups of laughing men and women were visible and state officials, for the most part could be found in their offices unless business took them outside the capitol.

Silence and relief reigns supreme around the building, for "they" have moved out, bag and baggage, some to return no more and the rest next year. "They" in the parlance of the state house were the members of the Fifth legislature which adjourned Saturday night, after a special session which lasted 60 days.

ESTAVIER ADMITS HE USED FALSE NAME BEFORE AJO ROAD MURDER

TUCSON, April 18.—Taking the stand in his own defense today, Wm. S. Estavier, who is being tried in superior court here on a charge of first degree murder in connection with the death of Mrs. Anna C. Johnson, admitted that he had registered at a Tucson hotel under an assumed name.

It was at this hotel that the Johnsons made Estavier's acquaintance and agreed to allow him to accompany them in their car on the overland trip to Los Angeles. While traveling south out of this city on the Ajo-Sentinel road, the crime with which Estavier is charged, was committed.

"I registered under an assumed name to evade a man I met in Los Angeles and who I knew would try to borrow money from me," he said, when he was asked for his reason of using a fictitious name. He explained he had met this man in Tucson on his second trip.

Examination of Estavier will be resumed tomorrow.
